Reading/PA, May 29, 2018 Brenntag North America and Brenntag Latin America announce support for Water For People

Brenntag North America and Brenntag Latin America are pleased to announce support for the charitable organization Water For People, promoting the development of high-quality drinking water and sanitation services across the globe.

Brenntag is committed to sustainability, long-term development, and support for the communities the company works in, understanding there are still significant needs in Latin America for access to sustainable long-term solutions for safe water.

Markus Klaehn, President & CEO Brenntag North America: "Clean water is one of the essential needs of our growing, global population. At Brenntag, we are committed to contributing our share to the solution through our dedicated industry experts who provide a variety of products and services into the water treatment industry, as well as through support of an organization like Water For People."

Working under the tagline "Everyone Forever", Water For People is a global and respected water and sanitation organization leading the way in creating sustainable solutions to this global challenge.

"We are very excited to welcome Brenntag support of Water For People. On behalf of our global team and the growing number of communities we are working within our nine countries, we thank Brenntag for choosing to support Water For People. I look forward to seeing what we achieve together," said Eleanor Allen, CEO of Water For People.
