Brenntag and ML Polyolefins sign cooperation agreement focusing on stable, high quality recyclates for demanding applications

Brenntag, the global market leader in chemical and ingredients distribution, today announced a new agreement with ML Polyolefins to serve Scandinavia, Czech Republic, and Slovakia. The cooperation will focus on demanding applications like automotives and appliances, where there is a high awareness of the need to use recyclates while at the same time the need to maintain a high quality.

Sara Ghione, Director Polymers EMEA at Brenntag Specialties and Tomasz Mikulski, CEO of ML Polyolefins, announced the new partnership at the 27th International Fair of Plastics and Rubber Processing PLASTPOL in Kielce, Poland.

“We are proud and happy to have found in ML Polyolefins a business partner who has a stable high quality product range, who is service oriented with a very professional set up. With aligned strategies and complementary specialists, we look forward to a constructive sustainable cooperation!”, said Sara Ghione.

Brenntag Specialties Material Science Polymers offers a comprehensive product and service portfolio as well as individual and sustainable polymer solutions to move towards a circular economy. Brenntag’s specialists work closely with customers and suppliers to understand the specific needs and requirements and offer customized solutions to help achieve their goals.

With Brenntag’s central role in the chemical industry’s value chain, this also entails an obligation to contribute towards greater sustainability in the industry. “We are aware of our responsibilities towards the environment and society that come with our business activities and market position, and we aim to achieve sustainable value creation”, stated Christian Frimann, President Material Science Brenntag Specialties EMEA.
